Created in 2014, this unique event was launched by the two leading editors of the economic press in France & Germany "Les Echos" & "The Handelsbatt". This Event is an Exceptional Opportunity for Collaboration between France and Germany. Organized alternately in France and Germany, this year, the Two Daily Newspapers of the Two Countries are once again joining Forces for the 8th Edition of "French German Business Forum" (FGBF) - Novembre 16, 2022 in Paris.

Recent Tensions between Paris and Berlin have led some to Question the Partnership's Purpose and Relevance. But a Track Record of Overcoming Differences suggests Relations can be revived.... Deep Divergences in the two Countries' Interests have been there from the Start. In fact, they are at the Heart of the Franco-German Partnership. It is precisely because Former French President Charles de Gaulle and then German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer understood early on the Depth of Divergences in their National Interests that they decided in 1963 to work on an Enduring Partnership.
